

CFTLA Members Are Invited to this free CLE Webinar Sponsored by Quality Forensic Engineering, LLC
Speaker: Traci K. Campbell, P.E., CXLT

- 📅 Thursday, January 28, 2021
 - 🕒 10:00 AM
 - 📍 Zoom link will be sent in advance
- FL Bar approved CLE Credits
1.0 General / 1.0 Civil Trial

*Q*forensics

Ms. Campbell is a registered Professional Engineer with over 20 years experience, is a CXLT – Certified XL Tribometrist (slip index evaluation) and a certified counterbalance forklift operator. Specialties include amusement park and theme park accidents and safety related issues.

EVENT DETAILS

TITLE: Slips, Trips, and Falls: Awareness and Avoidance

This course will include the following topics:

- Introduction
 - Industrial Engineering, Industrial Engineering at Work in Forensics*
- Slips, Trips, and Falls
 - Definitions*
- Engineering/Safety Design Hierarchy
- Forensic Case Studies Illustrating Slips, Trips, and Falls
- Stairs
 - Geometry, Design Issues, Conspicuity, Change in Elevation, Guarding Warnings*
- Applicable Statutes, Codes, Standards, and Guidelines
 - Florida Statutes, OSHA, ADA, ASTM, ANSI, Other Sources*
- Tribometry and Demonstration
 - Devices, Demonstration - English XL Variable Incident Tribometer*
- Q & A

RSVP: leigh@cftla.org